

WORKSHOPS – PRODUCTION MODULE

What you get:

- Formation of workshops for different productions.
- Delivery of materials from a company warehouse on the basis of a request for the production of a product / semi-finished product.
- Return of raw materials from the production workshop to the warehouse if necessary.
- Automatic accrual of manufactured products and semi-finished products in a company warehouse.
- Create a unique batch number.
- Cost calculation.
- References - by types of production, by products for a selected period, etc.

Functionalities:

- Formation of workshops for different productions
- Production of series / footwear industry /
- Discharging materials: by recipe; only available by recipe; individually for different types of production
- Orders for products: registration of an order for production of one or more final products with deadlines for execution; planning of delivery of materials, according to stock availability; checking the available materials for making an order and displaying a report for insufficient quantities
- Receipt of finished products in the finished products warehouse
- Create a unique batch number
- Inquiries - by types of production, by customers, by products for a selected period